

Dear Customer and Friend

For us it is an honor to have you as a customer, is honored to have been elected to your supplier of electrical, electronic, informatics articles, but not only ... just as important to the comfort of your home or your business.

We pride ourselves by reliance on our products and services and we are open for any suggestions that might further improving our business.

The purpose of this company is to carry out a work of excellence, meeting deadlines and contracts with the utmost rigor and meet the quality requirement and desired by our client.

This quality proposal would not be implemented without the valuable contribution that you, as a customer, always offered us, being faithful to our products and services and evidencing the possible mishaps who always try to avoid.

In the certainty of always offering quality products, we rely on you as a valued customer ever.

Yours Sincerely

The Chairman of the Company

Mohamed Sabir Gulam Rasool